

A Review of Open Borders Inc.: Who's Funding America's Destruction?

Center for immigration Studies

October 1, 2019

The last four decades of mass immigration did not just happen by chance. Complex social and political forces drove the demographic transformation that has added 55 million people to the U.S. population since 1980. Given the magnitude of this transformation, it is curious that more has not been written on how and why it occurred.

<https://cis.org/Wahala/Review-Open-Borders-Inc-Whos-Funding-Americas-Destruction-Michelle-Malkin>

Effort addresses Central American irregular migration

Home land Preparedness News

October 1, 2019

Department of Homeland Security (DHS) officials said the agency recently initiated an effort designed to increase collaboration between America and Honduras regarding combating irregular migration through Central America.

<https://homelandprepnews.com/stories/37405-effort-addresses-central-american-irregular-migration/>

IOM, UNHCR Support Resettlement of Refugees in South America

Relief Web

October 01, 2019

Brasília.- Representatives from the Governments of Brazil, Argentina, Chile, and Uruguay participated in a roundtable discussion last week (25-26/09) to take stock of the Emerging Resettlement Countries Joint Support Mechanism (ERCM), a joint initiative of the International Organization for Migration (IOM) and the UN Refugee Agency (UNHCR)

<https://reliefweb.int/report/world/iom-unhcr-support-resettlement-refugees-south-america>

A Changing Environment and its Security Implications for Latin America

Diálogo Digital Military Magazine

October 01, 2019

Militaries across the Americas must boost preparedness for the risks and consequences of natural disasters, experts in climate change and its security implications say.

<https://dialogo-americas.com/en/articles/changing-environment-and-its-security-implications-latin-america>

Youth led climate change movements puts planet in the political spotlight

WWMT

October02, 2019

Washington.- Millions of young people across the world took to the streets in late September for a school strike to express their fears for the future of the planet in hopes that lawmakers take more radical measures to combat climate change.

<https://wwmt.com/news/nation-world/youth-led-climate-change-movements-puts-planet-in-the-political-spotlight>

Waterville mayor calls Columbus Day a 'pro-immigrant' holiday amid backlash over proclamation

Bangor Daily News

October 02, 2019

Waterville Mayor Nick Isgro found himself embroiled in a bitter confrontation with area residents over his proclamation recognizing Columbus Day, but was not without his defenders.

<https://bangordailynews.com/2019/10/02/news/waterville/waterville-mayor-calls-columbus-day-a-pro-immigrant-holiday-amid-backlash-over-proclamation/>